

The Line Youth Guides 2023

Job Description and Person Specification

Short-term contract (July to September)

Weekend working (4-hour shift)

£11.95 per/hour

The Line is looking for 24 Youth Guides to work on The Line on weekends over summer.

What will you be doing?

- Be part of a team, working in pairs at different locations on The Line between The House Mill in Bow and Greenwich Peninsula
- Learn to talk about art, nature and east London's history on The Line
- Talk to members of the public about The Line and share your own ideas about public art

Who can join? Young people who:

- Young people aged 18-21 (must be 18 by or on 1 July 2023)
- Have a passion for their neighbourhood
- Are responsible, reliable and organised
- Willing to work hard
- Possess good verbal communication skills
- Enjoy contributing to a team and meeting new people
- Sociable and willing to talk to members of the public
- Happy to work outdoors
- Live in Newham, Hackney, Tower Hamlets, Greenwich or Waltham Forest

Benefits:

Develop your future employability skills including:

- Communication and public speaking
- Teamworking
- Confidence and leadership
- Community engagement
- Paid training

Pay:

You will be employed on a short-term contract, working a 4-hour shift at weekends and you will be paid the London Living Wage (£11.95 per hour). You will also be paid. You will also be paid for 3 days of training, 2.5 days before you start your role and ½ a day at the end of the programme.

Becoming a Youth Guide is a great way to meet others, get outdoors, learn new skills and have fun!

Programme timetable:

6 June: Online information session and tips for your application.

Register here

15 June, 5pm: Application deadline

Week commencing 19 June: Interviews and places offered

3, 4 and 10 July: Training commences

15/16 July: First shifts on The Line

30/01 September / October Final weekend

How to apply for The Line Youth Guide programme:

We are committed to equality and diversity within our workforce and in all opportunities. Our recruitment process is open to all but we would particularly like to encourage applications from people from Black, Asian and ethnically diverse backgrounds, those who identify as LGBTQ+, those from lower socio-economic backgrounds and those who identify as disabled, as these groups are currently underrepresented in our teams and the cultural sector more widely.

Complete the short application form here and complete your Equal Opportunities Monitoring Form here.

If you would prefer to answer the questions in image, voice or video format please email Matilde matilde@the-line.org.

This job description is available in large print. Please email workwithus@the-line.org